

Nicholas Galt is the Executive Chairman of the TSL Group, a group of ICT companies operating predominantly throughout the Caribbean region. He is recognized regionally for his entrepreneurial personality and his software engineering skills. He is the author of several regionally successful applications and co-author of the Caribbean's most successful integrated Human Resource Management System. He maintains a varied portfolio in both the business world and the NGO communities. He is Chairman of the Governing Board of Directors of The Association of American Chambers of Commerce of Latin America and the Caribbean (AACCLA)-sister organization of the U.S Chamber of Commerce. He is also on the Board of Directors of the Pan American Development Foundation as well as Niquan Energy Trinidad Limited. In Trinidad and Tobago, Galt is a past president and sitting Board Member of the American Chamber of Commerce.

He holds the honour of being the first Caribbean Information Technologist to be awarded membership to The Worshipful Company of Information Technologists, a London Livery Company, after being elected a member in 2008. On October 13th, 2011, he was elevated to Livery Man at St. Bart's Cathedral and is now one of 5000 Livery Men who are granted the responsibility of electing the Lord Mayor of the City of London as well as Sheriffs and other elected officials of the City of London. He has also acted several times as an Independent Senator in the Trinidad and Tobago Senate.

Mr. Galt is a liaison Officer for the Guillain Barre Foundation of Philadelphia, U.S.A as well as a Rotary Paul Harris fellow.